

16 NOVEMBER 1937

MISS E. J. ASTLE

TRIBUTES AT SPONDON FUNERAL FROM CHURCH ORGANISATIONS

The funeral took place at Spondon Cemetery of Miss Emma Joan Astle (46), of Borrowash-road, Spondon, the service being conducted at St. Werburgh's Church, Spondon, by the Rev. C. Hervé.

The hymn, "Holy Father, Cheer Our Way," was sung by the ladies' choir, of which Miss Astle was a member. Miss Dinn was the organist.

Miss Astle was also a member of the Spondon Church Working Party, the Girls' Friendly Society, the Women's Institute and the Spondon branch of the South Derbyshire Conservative Association. All of these organisations were represented at the funeral.

Chief mourners were Mr. J. Astle (father), Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Astle, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Astle, and Mr and Mrs T. Z. Astle (brothers and sisters-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. J. Coxon (brother-in-law and sister), and Mrs. J. Astle (stepmother).

Wreaths were sent by: Norah and Joe: father and Mrs. Astle: Ted, Doris and Laurie; Charlie and Doris; Stanley and little Billy; Tom, Nell and Dorothy; Peggy and Punch: friend Ethel; Mrs. T. Maddocks; Margaret, Frank, Eric and Cecil; Aunt Lizzie and Mother; Mr. and Mrs. Winfield and Alfie; Ada and Jack; Mr. and Mrs. Peat and Mr. and Mrs. Burns; Spondon Church Working Party; Ladies' Choir and Girls' Friendly Society; and South Derbyshire Women's Conservative Association.

Arrangements were by Mr. H. L. Holmes, of Spondon.